

ENGLISH HOME

20
years
ANNIVERSARY

Celebrating the essence of English style

April 2021 | Issue 194 | £4.75 | UK Edition

SPRING FORWARD

Renew, refresh & revitalise life at home

EXPERT GUIDES

- Blissful bedrooms
- Perfect sitting rooms

CLEVER CURATION

How best to display art and antiques

TIME TO INDULGE IN

- Seasonal flowers
- Easter entertaining

NEW COLLECTIONS

SHOPPING

ILLUMINATING ART

Featuring textured cubes of resin, imprinted with tree bark, offset against smooth pearl forms, Margit Wittig's new Cube collection comprises a chandelier, and ceiling, table and floor lamps, with each piece handmade by the artist herself.

Cube collection, from £1,800, Margit Wittig

DEBUT WALLPAPER

Repeated customer enquiries led textile designer Pippa Blacker to translate three of her most popular prints into an inaugural wallpaper range, digitally printed in the UK on uncoated non-woven paper.

Falling Leaves, Walking in Heather, and Lavender (each available in five colourways), £85 a roll, Pippa Blacker

ORIENTAL INFLUENCE

Designer Debby Tenquist's passion for Oriental art influenced her Silk Road collection, seen here in one of two designs digitally printed in the UK on 100 per cent Belgian linen. Duck & Deer, £160 a metre, Botanica Trading at The Fabric Collective

CHIC REPOSE

Opt to dine in glamour with the sleek curves, piped trim and polished wooden frame of this smart new seating design, seen here in Bahama cotton matt velvet.

Margaux dining chair, from £450, sofa.com

